Summary

As a passionate learner and problem solver, my quest for knowledge has nurtured a craft in telling compelling brand stories through visual communication and blending design with emergent technologies.

I have dedicated the next year of my life towards becoming a Full Stack Web Developer, learning languages and technologies such as HTML5, CSS, Ruby, Ruby on Rails, JavaScript, jQuery, Node.js, Express and SQL to extend a career that can leverage my design background.

Experience

Marketing Graphic Designer | Dec 2018 - Current

Geovert

As the global spearhead of marketing and design, I lead the design, development, and deployment of creative content across multiple mediums including online, print, UI and UX to strengthen the Geovert brand - connecting people to a captivating vision of the company.

Creative Director | December 2016 - November 2018

Gainz Train

As a personal project, I launched an online store stemming from a passion for bodybuilding and personal development. Setting the Gainz Train in motion was an enormous source of knowledge for understanding the complexities of entrepreneurship and full-spectrum digital marketing.

Marketing & Graphic Design Manager | February 2013 - November 2018

Paintballshop.com

My primary role was to design, develop and coordinate all advertising materials across print and digital media. In addition, designed bespoke marketing materials and developed strategic marketing for high-profile clients such as the Shooters, Fishers and Farmers Party.
